Review: The KSE100 index failed to attract any buying interest as below pivot it went under selling pressure. The index kept rolling down once it slipped below pivot level, which was crucial for it to hold to avert trouble.

Strategy: 10,890pts is the pivot for the day: market needs a sharp pull-back to avert problem, which seems difficult. However, index slipping below 10,870pts will shut the door for any such surprise move. Close below 10,870pts will be indicative of further trouble.
